Introduction

Since the time of Industrial Revolution, western countries have been leaders of technology. The Colonialism in the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries helped increase their spheres of dominance the world over. The two world wars and their aftermath however changed all this.

In the post world war scenario Japan has emerged from the ashes to become a major industrial force in the world. Whether it is heavy engineering, electronics, or automobile industry, Japan has taken the lead and flooded the world markets with quality goods at much cheaper prices. Industry apart, Japanese work culture is also an object-lesson in discipline and perfection and is being adopted by other countries.

With growing affluence, the Japanese are major contributors to the tourism industry. Today, their presence is in evidence at every tourist spot the world over.

India, for its part, has several tie-ups with Japanese companies. We are also trying to promote India as tourist destination. Obviously, there is a great demand for translators, interpreters and personnel fluent in Japanese. Institutes teaching Japanese are mushrooming in every major city to cater to the ever-increasing demand. Students too are looking eastwards for fresh pastures.

Japanese is the language of one of the most technically and industrially advanced nations. A lot of technical literature produced in Japan is not available in any other language.

Thus, the Japanese language which is a unique one with 3 scripts and a grammar similar to Indian languages, is ideal for study by Indian students (who have a gift for languages). This will present them with an opportunity to communicate with the Japanese people and will open various career opportunities.

The major objective of teaching Japanese is to make students aware of a foreign culture and its people in order to promote international understanding and harmony by acquiring the necessary communication skills in the foreign language.
