Introduction

Now it becomes necessary to give formal, traditional, recent education in Commerce and Industry along with practical knowledge so as to enable the students to have good understanding of the basic concepts of globalised world and its relationship with the society.

Council of Boards of School Education in India (COBSE) has taken the responsibility of bringing out ‘Common contents in commerce’ at +2 stages of secondary level. It is a dynamic process that brings together technology, natural resources and human initiative in a constantly changing global environment. Information Technology is becoming a part of educational operations. Computerized systems are fast and replacing other systems. This curriculum will prepare students to analyse, manage, evaluate and respond to change which affects seriously. It provides a way of looking at and interacting with the business environment.

This syllabi introduces 80-20 pattern of evaluation. Comprising 80 marks Theory and 20 marks practical being need of the time. Practical approach is introduced. After doing a comparative study of syllabi of different Boards like C.B.S.E, ICSE, regarding their syllabi at +2 level, this curriculum is prepared which shows common contents in commerce at the national level. The suggestions and recommendations received from various Boards regarding commerce subjects are considered in this curriculum. It allows students to appreciate that business is an integral component of society and develops an understanding of many social and ethical issues. Besides, it also informs students of a range of study and work options and bridge the gap between Secondary and Higher secondary education.

Note:

1) This syllabus is prepared according to the guidelines of N.C.F 2005.
2) This syllabus is compared with CBSE and ICSE Board – XI and XII syllabi pattern.
3) The instructions introduced in N.C.F. – 2005 are included in this syllabus.
4) While considering the N.C.F. 2005 it is observed that in XI-syllabi unit No. 7 and 8 and in XII syllabi unit No. 9 and 10, are already included in the subject-Secretarial Practice in the current syllabus. In view of this, to avoid the repetition of the above mentioned units of Stds. XI and XII these topics are deleted.
5) CBSE and ICSE BOARDS DO NOT have the subjects ‘Secretarial Practice’ and ‘Co-operation’. These subjects are available only in Maharashtra State. Hence, the Board of studies proposes that no change is necessary in S.P. and Co-operation as these are newly constructed (Except, Business Finance to be included in S.P.) subjects.
